

Mentone Primary School Communication Survey

Compiled by RMIT Communications Team

- 1) How often do you use the school website?
 - More than once a week
 - Once a week
 - Once a fortnight
 - Once every three weeks
 - Once a month
 - Less than once a month
- 2) On a scale of one to five how useful do you find the website?
 - One
 - Two
 - Three
 - Four
 - Five
- 3) On a scale of one to five how useful do you find the take home newsletter?
 - One
 - Two
 - Three
 - Four
 - Five
- 4) Do you look back at archived newsletters on the website?
 - Yes
 - No
- 5) Do you feel that there is sufficient communication between the school and parents?
 - Yes
 - No

6) Do you feel that there are enough opportunities for you as a parent to communicate back to the school (including your children’s teachers)?

- Yes
- No

7) Please rank the schools current forms of communication that you find most effective from one to five?

- Newsletters
- Notes sent home from teachers
- Parent-teacher interviews
- Website
- Assemblies

8) What changes would you like to see made in your school with regard to how communication is conducted?

By responding to and returning this survey you are authorising this information to be used for research purposes by RMIT University and Mentone Primary School. All information will be kept confidential.